Checkpoint 1 Peer Review 31-10-2024

Anna is contributing to the project with various tasks. She has achieved all of them in a timely manner while adhering to the acceptance criteria. She communicates well with the group and honors the decisions within the team.

Anna is an invaluable team member with extensive knowledge and experience in professional team settings. As our Scrum Master, she diligently fulfills her role, ensuring the team's progress and cohesion. Her thoughtful approach and habit of asking insightful questions drive the team toward higher-quality work and encourage us to consider different perspectives and improvements.

Our project was greatly influenced by Anna's inventiveness, which brought new insights that improved our product. She effectively managed the design elements, making sure everything complemented our overall concept and was visually appealing. By actively incorporating input into her work and regularly checking in with team members, Anna demonstrated her commitment, which promoted teamwork and helped us stay on course.

Strong teamworker, consistently delivering required tasks swiftly and without difficulty.
